Evidence of the vortex math origin of the Universe is ubiquitous on Earth. The most peculiar one – at least for the Scientist – is the benzene molecule. Benzene is a common solvent largely used in chemistry and its molecule is at the basis of an extensive array/network of chemical reactions gathered under the caption of “Organic Chemistry”. It was Kekulé who back in the 19th century came up with the right/correct *resonance*¹ structure of the molecule with its delocalized π -electrons and all its later identified/detected spectral vibrational absorption bands in the 3⁹6⁶ Hz domain. The two resonance forms of benzene are undistinguishable spectrophotometrically – meaning that UV/VIS/IR light does not vibrate fast enough to separate them – i.e. they are in the 0:9⁹ “Nothing/AntiNothing:EveryThing” resonance mode. Yet light is captured/absorbed by the wormhole between the two forms, thereby unveiling/revealing its diverse chemical bonds’ vibrational modes (D6h), i.e. its tangible physicochemical pattern/counterpart in time/space, read the solvent in a bottle².

As it appears, the benzene molecule is an ideal pre-Universe math concept in a time/space-resulting chemical construct of electronic resonance (1-1↔0:9↔3⁶), at disposal naturally on Earth, for a.o. the eventual psychophysical test-validation of music therapy.

All 9 (3x3) Yin/Yang Solfeggio frequencies (174/825.285/714.396/693.417/582.528/471.639/369.741/258.852/147.963/936Hz) = 0:9⁹.

Mass(174), Charge(285) (i.e. matter/body) are observational consequences of local informational electromagnetic(825), gravitational(714) fields (i.e. information/mind), with which they are undistinguishable, read in resonance 396:693 or 0:9⁹ in time/space. Music therapy is all about synchronizing the identified YY/TT Solfeggio frequencies with those mind pixel fields. This can probably only happen in a body/mind state of meditation (brain transiently switched-off), somehow in apparent/induced pseudo-absence of time/space (sidereal time?)

Remember

All we see/perceive is the body image of that thing/being's wormhole. Under normal conditions of unpolarized lighting³, light is not capable of/has no time for interacting with the two “Kekulé” – read YY/TT – forms of that same thing/being. Each and all of those things/beings are in the 3^r6^r:9^r mode, i.e. they co-exist as a delocalized field between two mutually self-annihilating resonance forms ($\Delta E=0$), e.g., mind:body (3^r6^r), only.

*We need to re-think of ourselves – and of the rest of it – as if we were sorts of resonances between two respectively self-annihilating math terms (3^r6^r)⁴, whose physical annihilation (0:9^r) is rendered impossible due/thanks to a spin (time/space) constraint⁵, i.e. the relatively low energy/frequency of visible light...*

Yes. The “Nothing:AntiNothing” & the “Nothing:Everything” resonances do apply to each and all of us, live or dead, mind:body or star dust, no matter how pleasant/disturbing this may be to hear. Yet, right midway, in our rather comfortable wormhole, one has/should have access in time/space to Light, Evolution & Free Will, and all that one can potentially do with it for the “good” of Humanity. Once the beauty of it all understood, there is no much room left for not being enthusiastic. Let us keep educating/writing the tale/book of Humanity together, as “enresonated” Humans, i.e. Homo modestis, der ÜberMensch... released from/free of all past ignorance/fear-based – hardly – excusable(?)⁶ Homo sapiens-type misconceptions/behaviors/phenotypes, read the *IDLEs*TM...

¹ Remember: Resonance is the pre-BigBang/pro-Universe self-emerging/annihilating ($E=0$) math concept referred to as the Fibonacci Series.

² Presenting itself as a life (toxic!) liquid/vapor in time/space. Remember: Oxygen is toxic too...

⁴ In memory to Hamlet: „to be and/or not to be“, in French assimilated as „C'est Tout et/ou Rien“.

⁵ As per Einstein (slightly amended): „time/space (light spin) is what makes Nothing:Everything not self/mutually annihilating“.

⁶ Never look back in the mirror (?), Homo modestis says... “Warte nicht so lange” (no translation needed to join Humanity's Cry).
